

FLORIDA RESIDENCY AFFIDAVIT
(For Persons Claiming Florida Residency for Tuition Purposes)

A Florida "resident for tuition purposes" is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least twelve consecutive months preceding the first day of classes of the term for which Florida residency is sought. Residence in Florida must be as a bonafide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education. To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Other persons not meeting the twelve-month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and State Board of Education. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida "resident for tuition purposes." Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents. Residence for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. Students must verify that they have broken ties to other states if the student or, in the case for dependent students, his or her parent, has moved from another state.

This section must be completed in full if you claim Florida residency for tuition purposes.

Dependent: A person for whom 50% or more of his/her support has been provided by another as defined by the Internal Revenue Service.
Independent: A person who provides more than 50% of his/her own support.

Please choose one of the qualifications or exceptions listed below and attach copied of required documentation (if any):

- I am an independent person and have maintained legal residence in Florida for at least the past 12 consecutive months (Required: copy of FL drivers' license, voters card/registration and/or vehicle registration).
- I am a dependent person and my parent or legal guardian has maintained legal residence in Florida for at least the past 12 consecutive months. (Required: copy of parent/legal guardian's FL driver's license, FL voters' card/registration, and/or FL vehicle registration).
- I am a dependent person who has continuously resided with an adult relative other than my parent or legal guardian for the five years immediately preceding my initial enrollment at a public college or university, and my relative has maintained legal residence in Florida for at least the past 12 consecutive months. (Required: notarized copy of most recent tax return(s) on which you were claimed as a dependent or other proof of dependency).
- I am married to a person who has maintained legal residence in Florida for at least the past 12 consecutive months. I have now established legal residence and intend to make Florida my permanent home. (Required: copy of marriage certificate and other documents required to establish residency.)
- I was previously enrolled at a Florida state institution and classified as a Florida resident for tuition purposes. I abandoned my Florida domicile less than 12 months ago and am now reestablishing Florida legal residence. (This benefit only applies one time.)
- According to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, I am a permanent resident alien or other legal alien granted indefinite stay and have maintained a domicile in Florida for at least the past 12 consecutive months. (Required: USCIS documentation and proof of Florida residency status.)
