

ENVIRONMENTAL FORUM

The Florida State University College of Law and the Environmental and Land Use Section of The Florida Bar present:

THE ROLE OF MARINE RESERVES IN A FISHERIES MANAGEMENT STRATEGY

Tuesday, November 7, 2006

3:30 p.m.

B.K. Roberts Hall, Room 101

Reception to follow forum in The D'Alemberte Rotunda

Welcome by Lauren Moody, President, Environmental Law Society

Presenters include:

Felicia Coleman, member of the FSU biological science faculty and Director of the FSU Coastal and Marine Laboratory

Charles Shelfer, Deputy General Counsel of the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission

Robin Craig, the Florida State University College of Law Attorneys' Title Insurance Fund Professor

David White, Director of the South Atlantic regional office of The Ocean Conservancy

Donna Christie, the Florida State University College of Law Elizabeth C. and Clyde W. Atkinson Professor, will moderate the forum

For more information, visit www.law.fsu.edu