FELLOWSHIPS, AWARDS & EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Research Foundation-Flanders (FWO), Antwerp (Belgium) 11/2020 – 06/2025
PhD fellowship (approx. €150,000)

FWO is one of Belgium’s national scientific councils, which is responsible for funding innovative research. The FWO’s PhD fellowships are extremely competitive, open to both domestic and international researchers. They provide the opportunity to focus full time on fundamental research, including foreign research stays.

UCLA Promise Institute, Los Angeles, CA 05/2020 – 07/2020

Summer Human Rights Fellowship of the UN Special Rapporteur on Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance

I provided research assistance for the UN Special Rapporteur on Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance and helped with the preparation of the reports submitted to the United Nations Human Rights Council in Geneva.

Fulbright, Los Angeles, CA 08/2019 – 08/2020
Fulbright Award (€19,000)

The Fulbright Commission’s award allowed me to pursue my LLM at the University of California, Los Angeles.

University of Antwerp, Antwerp (Belgium) 11/2021
Support Young Researchers Grant (OJO) (€3000)

This grant allowed me to co-organize a workshop for junior researchers at the University of Antwerp, titled ““Too Far, Too Close: A Training Day on Positionality for Junior Researchers””.

Belgian Permanent Representation to the United Nations in Geneva (Human Rights Council), Geneva (Switzerland) 06/2018 – 07/2018

Intern

I followed up on issues related to international law, gender and sexuality. In that regard, I was charged with attending plenary sessions of the United Nations Human Rights Council in Geneva as well as participating in meetings by non-governmental organizations and reporting about them to the Belgian ambassador and diplomats. I also organized meetings with delegates from other states.

Unia Centre For Equal Opportunities and Fight against Discrimination, Brussels (Belgium) 07/2017 – 07/2019

Individual Support Assistant

Unia is Belgium’s governmental equality body. As an individual support assistant, I was charged with receiving complaints of discrimination, assisting the victims, making initial legal assessments and transferring the cases to pertinent lawyers.

WORKSHOPS & SUMMER SCHOOLS

Organized

“Too Far, Too Close: A Training Day on Positionality for Junior Researchers”, with keynote lectures by dr. Sophie Withaeckx and dr. Marion Wasserbauer – University of Antwerp, Antwerp (Belgium) – 25 November 2021.

Participated in “Annual Workshop of the Belgian section of the International Association for Philosophy of Law” – Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Brussels (Belgium) – 14 September 2021.

“Antiracism & Decolonization Training” – USOS & Bamko vzw – University of Antwerp, Antwerp (Belgium) – March-April 2021.

SERVICE/COMMITTEES

Member of the Council on Diversity and Sustainability of the Law Faculty of the University of Antwerp (2022-2025).

Voting member of the Steering Committee on Diversity and Inclusion of the University of Antwerp (2023-2025).

Founding member of QT@UA Trans Action Group at the University of Antwerp (2020), resulting in policy changes, including university wide gender inclusive communication guidelines.

SKILLS & PASSIONS

I am fluent in Dutch, English, French as well as Spanish and have notions of Italian, German, Arabic and Russian.

Besides work, I can be found practicing Bikram yoga three times a week, I meditate daily, and I deeply enjoy traveling, the outdoors, dancing the night away, endless talks with friends during sunsets, or meeting strangers and ask them about their life experiences. I value empathy, kindness and strive to put feminist principles of interdependency, vulnerability and care into practice.
