CONFERENCE ORGANISING

- From 2013 to 2024, as co-Director of the Centre of European law at King's, I have overall responsibility for organising a number of scholarly events, including the Annual European law lecture and the Annual European law conference, which is one of the main events in the academic calendar for scholars interested in EU law across Europe.
- Since October 2024, as the LCEL Director, I have taken on similar responsibilities, overseeing the organisation of scholarly events. These events serve as key platforms for scholars, practitioners, and policymakers to engage with current developments in EU law and continue to strengthen the LCEL's role as a leading academic hub for European legal studies.
- Member, Steering committee Association of American Law Schools (AALS), European Law section (since 2019)
