THANKS TO OUR 2020-2021 DONORS

Gifts to Florida State University College of Law provide critical support for students, faculty, and academic programs. This Annual Report is one way of expressing our appreciation for all gifts received between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021. Gifts received between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022 will be recognized in the 2023 issue of Florida State Law.

Thank you so much! We hope our progress over the years has shown that we are putting your contributed dollars to good use.

We strive to produce a complete and accurate report. Please call any errors or omissions to the attention of:

DEAN'S FUNDRAISING REPORT FOR 2020-2021

Dear Alumni and Friends:

2020-2021 was a year of both great challenge and great success for the law school. Despite the COVID-19 pandemic, the reputation of our outstanding students, faculty, and alumni continues to blossom. We continue to attract some of the strongest students, and have had consistently strong bar passage and placement rates.

Private fundraising makes a critical difference at the law school, helping us to attract and support the best students and faculty.

TOTAL GIFTS AND PLEDGES

Putting annual giving and larger gifts together, we raised a cash total of $1,107,011 and unrealized new pledges in the amount of $326,800, for a grand total of $1,433,811.

ANNUAL GIVING FROM ALUMNI

In 2020-2021, 18.47% of our alumni made cash gifts to the law school. This level of participation places us within the nation's top law schools in terms of alumni giving rate. This level of alumni contributions enriches the life of the school and sends a powerful signal about the enthusiasm our alumni have for the school.

GIVING FROM STUDENTS

This past year, 56.5% of our students participated in the Student Give Back Campaign. Our student enthusiasm and generosity bodes well for the future. They are blazing the trail for us all!

LARGER GIFTS

This past year, cash payments received totaled $595,200 towards $922,000 of Larger Gift commitments. The "Cash Gifts By Level" portion of this report includes only cash payments made during the fiscal year, even if they were but a portion of a larger gift. Under the heading of "Larger Gifts for 2020-2021," we outline the larger gift commitments that we received in the 2020-2021 fiscal year.

Teaser: the 2021-2022 report is far more bright now that we have emerged from COVID-19 with more successful fundraising strategies. We are deeply grateful to everyone who has contributed to our many successes. We shall continue to do our best to pay great dividends on the dollars you have invested in our school.

Sincerely,

Erin O'Hara O'Connor, Dean

ENDOWED GIFT OPPORTUNITIES

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Our single greatest need from private giving is endowed scholarships. To continue to serve our mission of providing access to all, including those from families of modest means, we will need significantly more scholarships. Scholarships are awarded according to the intent of the donor and may be based on merit, need, or other factors. The endowed scholarship would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowed scholarship:
$50,000 (may be paid over time)

Nabeha Shaer, class of 2021, was the recipient of the Calvin Patterson Civil Rights Endowed Scholarship.

ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIPS AND CHAIRS

According to a 2018 study of law faculty scholarly impact, our faculty is #1 in Florida and #29 nationally. Our faculty members are being recruited by some of the nation's most prominent law schools. Endowed professorships and chairs provide salary supplements based on merit. Faculty members are appointed for five-year terms, with renewal contingent on continued scholarly productivity. Professorships and chairs give us the merit money we need to retain our top faculty. The professorship or chair would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to endow a professorship: $250,000
(may be paid over time)

Minimum gift needed to endow a chair: $2,000,000
(may be paid over time)

The Edward Ball Eminent Scholar Chair in International Law has been instrumental in keeping Frederick M. Abbott at Florida State. He is highly regarded for his work in international intellectual property rights and global economic issues.

ENDOWMENTS FOR EXCELLENCE

Endowments for excellence are used, at the discretion of the law school, for purposes such as student scholarships, faculty incentives, general discretionary dollars, and funding for co-curricular activities including Law Review, Trial Team, and Moot Court. The endowment for excellence would be named after you or your designee.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowment for excellence: $30,000 (may be paid over time)

Avlana K. Eisenberg, the Gary & Sallyn Pajcic professor, is an expert on the law and practice of criminal punishment. A professorship helps retain scholars like Eisenberg at the College of Law.

ENDOWMENTS FOR PARTICULAR PROGRAMS

Private philanthropy has helped us take many of our existing programs to a new level of excellence. Our award-winning Moot Court and Trial Teams benefit from private contributions to supplement the dollars available to them for purposes such as traveling to regional and national competitions. Our Public Interest Law Center, which includes the Children's Advocacy Clinic, Farmworker & Immigration Rights Clinic, and International Human Rights Clinic, relies on private contributions to help pay for some of the expenses involved in training students to provide effective legal services to the under-represented. An important goal of the law school is to raise substantial endowments to support special programs and co-curricular organizations. Some programs simply would not exist at the law school but for the generous support of our alumni.

Minimum gift needed to create an endowment to benefit a particular program: $30,000 (may be paid over time)

DONOR RECOGNITION

We are delighted to recognize scholarships, professorships and other targeted gifts by naming them in honor of the donor or the donor's designee. In addition, we are pleased to acknowledge inter vivos gifts of $200,000 or more with an oil portrait of the donor or the donor's designee that will be displayed in a prominent place at the law school. The Advocacy Center and the renovated spaces in the main classroom building give us many rooms to name to thank donors for gifts ranging from $25,000 to $5 million.

LARGER GIFTS FOR 2020-2021

We would like to specially thank those of you who made a larger gift commitment between July 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021. These gifts make it possible to continue the dynamic advancement of the academic programs and reputation of the law school.

F. Palmer ('71) and Leslie Williams have donated real property valued at $300,000 to establish the Williams Family Scholarship to support students with financial need, as well as the Williams Family Endowment for Excellence to provide general support to the College of Law. Palmer is a retired partner from the Williams Gautier firm in Tallahassee. He spent most of his career providing broad ranging legal advice to credit unions and their memberships.

Multiple donors, led by Bruce ('93) and Wendy Wiener ('93), have made gifts totaling $90,000 to establish the Racial Justice Advocacy Fund. The fund will provide financial support to students in the College of Law who elect to pursue externships, internships, and work that provides hands-on legal training and focuses on racial inequality.

David Varet ('12) and the Middle Road Foundation have contributed $50,000 to support the College of Law's General Fund. Varet is an assistant regional counsel with the Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel's 5th District Office in Orlando. He is a member of the College of Law's Board of Visitors and the college's Alumni Association Board of Directors.

An anonymous donor has made a total of $35,000 in contributions to two funds. Both funds support students who choose to take on public interest externships, internships, or clerkships that are often underpaid or offer no pay, but benefit society.

Brian ('71) and Bonnie O'Neill have pledged $35,000 to their already established Brian D. and Bonnie R. O'Neill Endowment for Excellence. Endowments for excellence support the College of Law in the areas of greatest need. Brian is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Van Ness Feldman LLP. He has spent his entire career in energy law. Brian is a member of the College of Law's Board of Visitors.

Margaret "Peggy" Rolando ('78) has made an additional contribution of $30,000 to her already established Peggy Rolando Endowment for Excellence. Endowments for excellence support the College of Law in the areas of greatest need. She is a partner in the Miami office of Shutts & Bowen LLP, where she is a member of the Real Estate Practice Group, and is a member of the College of Law's Board of Visitors.

R.J. ('97) and April Haughey ('97) have pledged $30,000 to create the Haughey Family Endowment for Excellence. The fund will be used at the discretion of the law school, with a preference for funding initiatives that support the goal of minimizing and eliminating racial biases and their impact on all participants in the criminal justice system. R.J. is a shareholder at Sivyer Barlow Watson & Haughey P.A. in Tampa, where he practices in the area of commercial litigation. April serves as an assistant state attorney in the Office of the State Attorney for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit. R.J. is a member of the College of Law's Alumni Association Board of Directors.

The Garcia Family Foundation has pledged $27,000 to create the Originalism in Legal Interpretation Fund. The fund will provide financial resources to host a member of the federal or state judiciary to teach classes that focus on originalism and textualism in the law. The Foundation is based in Tampa and supports many causes, including legal education and veterans-focused organizations.

An anonymous donor has made a $25,000 contribution toward scholarships for students who have an interest in public interest work and have demonstrated a financial need.

BOOK AWARD SPONSORS

(as of June 30, 2021)

Book Awards generate scholarship funds for the College and recognize the academic achievements of law students. They also recognize the highest student grade in each sponsored course. Awards are sponsored with an annual contribution of $3,000 per year for each of five years. For information about Book Award sponsorship, please contact Becky Shepherd, executive director of alumni outreach and engagement, at 850.644.0231 or rshepher@law.fsu.edu.
