Student Profile: 3L Alexander Card

Alexander Card is a 3L student at Florida State University College of Law. He is scheduled to work at the Office of the State Attorney for the Second Judicial Circuit as a certified legal intern, where he will represent FSU at the International Trademark Association, where he met attorneys from all over the world and learned about new issues in trademark law. He is also a member of the FSU Law Trial Team and has participated in multiple competitions across the country. Card is a member of the FSU Law Foundation Board and is currently the vice president of the Intellectual Property Law Society at FSU. Before law school, Card served as a legal research assistant to the FSU Law Journal. He received his undergraduate degree in Political Science and Music from the University of South Florida. Originally from Tampa, Card will graduate from FSU in May 2019.

Field of Law Sought

Card is interested in intellectual property law. He hopes to eventually work for an intellectual property law firm in Atlanta or a large law firm in New York City. Card is currently a certified legal intern at the Office of the State Attorney for the Second Judicial Circuit and plans to work there after graduation. He is also interested in working for the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Expected Graduation

Card is scheduled to graduate from the Florida State University College of Law in May 2019.

Desired Practice Location

Card is interested in working in New York City or Atlanta.

Interview with Alexander Card

Q: What is your dream job after law school?
A: My dream job after law school is to work for a large law firm in New York City or Atlanta, where I can focus on intellectual property law. I also hope to work for the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office after graduation.

Q: Why did you choose to attend law school at Florida State University?
A: I chose to attend law school at Florida State University because of its strong intellectual property law program. I was also impressed with the quality of the faculty and the opportunities to gain practical experience. I was also drawn to the location and the facilities at FSU.

Q: What is your favorite law school class so far?
A: My favorite law school class so far is Criminal Law. I enjoy the challenges of analyzing legal issues and the practical aspects of the course.

Q: How has law school changed your perspective on the legal profession?
A: Law school has changed my perspective on the legal profession by broadening my understanding of the challenges and opportunities that come with practicing law. I have learned about the importance of critical thinking, analysis, and communication skills.

Q: What advice do you have for future law students?
A: My advice for future law students is to stay focused and committed to your goals. It is important to maintain a balance between your studies and personal life. Additionally, I would advise students to take advantage of the opportunities to gain practical experience and network with professionals in the field.