FSU Law Celebrates Homecoming

Last weekend, FSU Law celebrated its Homecoming festivities. The events included the annual Homecoming Parade, a special event for alumni classes of 1970 and 1971 during the 50-Year Alumni Brunch, and alumni reconnecting throughout the year. Attendees enjoyed a homecoming-themed tailgate for fans attending the football game.

"I am a double-'Nole, married to a double-'Nole, raising two future 'Noles—so I can objectively opine that there is no better place in Florida to practice law, observe state government, raise a family, and support our incredible alma mater than Tallahassee, FL," said this email's author.

Sign up to receive our future emails.

Student Profile: 3L Jason Barrack

Jason Barrack is a third-year law student at Florida State University College of Law. He is originally from Ogden, Utah, and graduated from Weber State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 2015. He worked as a full-time law clerk at Young Qualls Law Firm in Tallahassee. In this position, Barrack performed legal research for and observes hearings and depositions. He is also responsible for sorting through discovery documents and drafting pleadings and motions. Over the summer, Barrack assisted with trial preparations.

Throughout law school, Barrack has been stationed in the Business Law Society, the Real Property, and assisted with trial preparations. His relevant coursework includes Advanced Legal Research,Secured Transactions, Contract Drafting, Professional Responsibility, Companies, Corporate Finance, and Investment Management. If you are interested in connecting with or hiring Barrack after graduation, visit his LinkedIn or Law360 profile.

At FSU Law, Barrack is a member of the Business Law Society, the Real Property, and assisted with trial preparations. His relevant coursework includes Advanced Legal Research, Secured Transactions, Contract Drafting, Professional Responsibility, Companies, Corporate Finance, and Investment Management. If you are interested in connecting with or hiring Barrack after graduation, visit his LinkedIn or Law360 profile.

"I am a double-'Nole, married to a double-'Nole, raising two future "Noles"—so I can objectively opine that there is no better place in Florida to practice law, observe state government, raise a family, and support our incredible alma mater than Tallahassee, FL," said this email’s author.

Sign up to receive our future emails.