Student Profile: 3L Lauren Reed

Lauren Reed is pursuing a JD degree at Florida State University's College of Law. She is a member of the class of 2024 and was a co-founder and the current president of Law Students for Justice. Additionally, she is a student ambassador with the Admissions Office and a social media chair for student organization If/When/How: Lawyering for Reproductive Justice. Reed is also involved with several other organizations, including the Student Animal Legal Defense Fund, the Public Interest Practicing Wellness, and is the wellness support for law students. She is the vice president of the Public Interest Practicing Wellness, a student organization devoted to advocating for mental health issues.

At FSU Law, Reed was a co-founder and is currently president of Law Students for Justice. She is also involved with clients' cases. Additionally, she researched methods to resolve client disputes, and assisted in preparing correspondence for clients. She also prepared written testimony and letters of support for policy work, specifically helping children and/or animals.

During the spring of her 2L year, Reed was an intern at Best Friends Animal Society and she proposed, drafted, edited, and updated content on priority campaigns. As a teaching assistant, she prepared materials for class sessions, and assisted her professor in managing online course materials. Reed also researched methods to resolve client disputes, and assisted in preparing correspondence for clients. She also prepared written testimony and letters of support for policy work, specifically helping children and/or animals.

Alum Profile: Fred E. Karlinsky ('92)

Fred E. Karlinsky ('92) was reappointed for a term ending July 1, 2024. She was an assistant professor of law in the Florida State University's College of Law, where he teaches Law & Risk Management. He also serves as an adjunct professor at FSU Law, where he teaches Law & Risk Management. Karlinsky is a recognized authority on national insurance and governmental officials all over the world. Since 2008, Karlinsky has served as an attorney with Greenberg Traurig, LLP, practicing in the Fort Lauderdale and Tallahassee offices. He is co-chair of the firm's Insurance Regulatory and Transactions Practice Group. Karlinsky represents insurers, reinsurers, and a wide variety of other insurance-related entities on their regulatory, transactional, corporate, and litigation matters. He is a member of the American Bar Association and the Florida Bar. Karlinsky is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association.

Two alumni recently were reappointed to the nine-member Florida Supreme Court. Alum Profile: Fred E. Karlinsky ('92) and Heather L. Stearns ('02)