

Florida State University College of Law

Early Binding Decision Agreement

Fall 2019 Application for Admissions

As an applicant to Florida State University College of Law's Early Binding Decision program, I understand and agree to the following:

- This program is intended for applicants that have thoroughly researched law school options and have identified Florida State Law as their top choice.
- As an applicant to Florida State Law's Early Binding Decision program, I am prohibited from applying to any other law school as an early binding decision candidate.
- If admitted to Florida State Law through Early Binding Decision, I am obligated to fully commit to Florida State Law by January 31.
- If admitted to Florida State Law through Early Binding Decision, I am obligated to withdraw immediately from all other existing applications and/or acceptances to other law schools, as well as prohibited from submitting any new applications to other law schools.
- If I am not admitted through Florida State Law's Early Binding Decision, I will receive a decision on my application no later than January 31.
 - I will be notified that either:
 - My application has been denied, and the decision is final.
 - My application will continue to be considered as part of the regular application pool. In this case, the Early Binding Decision stipulations above no longer apply.

I have carefully reviewed and fully understand the obligations outlined above for applicants to the Early Binding Decision program. If accepted at Florida State Law through Early Binding Decision I will immediately withdraw all other applications and/or acceptances, discontinue submission of additional applications, and fully commit to Florida State Law by January 31.

I understand that failure to comply with the above stipulations of the Early Binding Decision program will result in the revocation of my offer of admission and scholarship award if applicable.

I understand that I must print, sign, and date this form and upload it with my online application through LSAC as a required attachment.

I understand that without this document included in my application, I will not be considered for Early Binding Decision.

Print Name (First, Last)

LSAC Account #

Signature

Date